B'OUT FOR ONCE.

The campaign managers of both par-ties in Piochs have decided to discourage the use of liquous on election day. This is strictly according to the law of the land, and a very wise law it is too. We are not prohibitionists. We believe in the proper use of whisky; but experience has taught as that its use, in this town, on election day, is always attended with abuse. It is to its hoses that the disabuse. It is to be hoped that the dis-graceful scenes which have been enacted our streets will never be repeated. It is had enough,—or good enough, according to the standpoint from which we view it—to get drunk occasionally. but for a free American citizen to deban-himself below the level of the brute creation before exercising the highest privilege guaranteed to him in this land of liberty, is a sail illustration of the most degrading phase of human nature. Once age," my power of human natures. Under only, is two years, have we the right to decide whom we shall employ to do our public business. Each man's ballot when it goer into the box, is his decision, on what is in reality—though seldom truly so considered—the most important matter that he can have to decide upon There is every good reason why we should all approach the sacred task in our most sober mood, and with all our faculties at their very best.

A WORD TJALL

The RECORD has been, under its pres-eat management, a Republican paper, expressing Republican sentiments, be-cause its proprietor wav a Republican. The Republican ticket is good enough for us, and we believe it the best for the County, State and Nation. Yet, with that independence which we think ought that independence which we think ought to belong not merely to every true Re-publicae, but to every true American we say to all, Democrate and R-publi-cans alike: don't vote for any man unless you believe him worthy of your vote; don't vote against any man for merely personal reasons; but vote as freemen, according to the best information obtain-able, and the verdict is sure to come out

LINCOLN COUNTY will need the best men she has in every office during the next two years. Voters, you are respon-sible. See that the best are relected from top to bottom.

STUBBORN PACTS.

If any Republican hears a Democratic sighbor bossting (anys the Philadelphia reas) of the bright prospects of the Dem-matic party, let him call his attention these results of this years' elections:

In Oregon, the Ropublicans cast the largest vote they ever polled, gained the largest purality they ever had, and greatly increased their representation in both brunches of the Legislature, making it from two-thirds to three-fourths

SHORT SERMONS ABOUT BOYS.

Phillips Jos Price Ed sin Pierson E H Page & T Pou,ade Jos Most boys and girls do not like sermone—they say they are too long for their highnesses. Perhaps they may like these short sermons. They will give food to think over, and must not be read too heatily:

be read too hastily:

A Swedish boy fell out of a window and was badly hurt, but, with elenched lips, he kept back the cry of pain. The King, Gustavus Adolphus, who saw the fall, prophesied that the boy would make a man for an emergency. And so he did, for he became the famous General Bauer.

An old painter watched a little fe-l low who amused himself making drawings of his pot and brushes, easel and stool, and said: "That boy will beat me one day." So he did, for he was Michael Angelo.

A German boy was reading a blood, and thunder novel. Right in the midst of it he said to himself: "Now this will never do. I get too much excited over it. I can't study so well after it. So here go a!" and he fluog the book out into the river. He was Fischte, the German Philosopher.
